“Introducing The Orthodox Church”
By Rev. Fr. Anthony Coniaris

Chapter Three
What We Believe About Jesus

1. Rising to stand up when one enters the room is a sign of respect. Bowing down and kneeling is a sign of what?
2. What or who is the dominant emphasis of the Nicene Creed?
3. In the Garden of Eden, mankind enjoyed a dialogue with God that was interrupted by our disobedience. Who re-established our face-to-face conversation with God?
4. What does “Lord” mean?
5. Jesus is the English translation of the Greek “Ιησους” which is itself a translation of the Hebrew name (in English) Joshua. What does “Joshua” mean?
6. What was Christ’s mission?
7. What is the human name of God’s Son?
8. Was Jesus half-God and half-man?
9. How is this possible?
10. Does that mean it is not true?

11. What does "Christ" mean?
12. What is the historical context of its use by the Hebrews?
13. "Christ" is the equivalent of what Hebrew word?
14. Then what does "Jesus Christ" mean?
15. What is the difference between the Messiahs of the Jews and the Christians?
16. What is the truth?
17. Is Christ a window or the Light?
18. Explain what the quote from Pascal means to you.
19. God condescended to take on our humanity in order to show us how to achieve it. How then did he elevate our human nature into heaven to crown it with divinity?
20. To become more like Christ, we must deny, satisfy, or realize our humanity?
21. Does the world accept or understand this?
22. Who came to show us what it means to be truly human and gave us the power to realize it?
23. How do we experience the real presence of Christ today?
